in the instant case of land acquisition. Accordingly, the revised draft award was issued by this Collectorate vide No. COL/LA/ADC/Rsi/17-18/344-45/NSQ dated 26-12-2017 after incorporating the rate approved in the meeting of Collectors. Thereafter, the file for approval of rates of land compensation and sanction of awarded amount, was submitted to Divisional Commissioner, Jammu vide Deputy Commissioner, Reasi letter No. DC/Rsi/17-18/1125-27/SQ dated 27-01-2018. 7. Respondent further submitted that SRO issued by Finance Department dated 17-04-1998 deals with State Government Employees whereunder they are entitled for 300 days as cash in lieu of leave salary and not the corporation employees. Whereas, JKPC has its own leave rules which provides only for 120 days in lieu of leave salary.

8. Similarly in para-wise reply also denied the claim of applicant/petitioner on the above stated analogy.

9. As only the legal issue is involved so the file came up for arguments.

10. I have heard the argument and gone through record.

11. Applicant petitioner through AR submitted that applicant was employed in J&K Project Construction and after rendering service of 37 years 7 months retired on superannuation as Timekeeper from non-applicant office on 31-10-2003. It is further submitted that applicant is entitled to 10 months cash in lieu of leave salary after his retirement in pursuance of SRO-124 dated 17-04-1998 by Finance Department of J&K Government. Since the J&K employees (Conduct Rule) is applicable to all employees of Government irrespective of the fact whether they belong to Government Department or Corporation/Undertakings by virtue of SRO-47 dated 05-02-1971 and therefore the employees of corporation have been decided at par with Govt. employees under payment of Wages Act.

12. It is further submitted by the applicant that after retirement on superannuation from services applied for payment of cash in lieu of leave salary for 10 months but the respondent only made the payment of 4 months leave salary and unlawfully deducted the 6 months leave salary which is amounting to Rs. 88560/-. Applicant finally submitted that respondent be directed to pay 10 months leave salary.

13. In support to these arguments cited Ali Mohd. Dar and Ors V/s Managing Director, JKPCC, Srinagar.

15. Ld. Counsel for respondent submits that applicant's contention that he was entitled for 10 months cash in lieu of salary in pursuance of SRO-124 dated 17-04-1998 issued by Finance Department is wrong as this SRO only pertains to State Government Employees who are entitled for 300 days cash in lieu of leave salary whereas JKPCCL Leave Rules provide for only 120 days cash in lieu of leave salary. As such employees of the JKPCCL are not entitled to claim benefit under SRO-124 dated 17-04-1998 till the same Rules were adopted by JKPCCL in 2008 and any employee who has been retired before. The counsel for respondent again submitted that in the year 2008 consequent upon the approval conveyed by the Board of Director meeting held on 17-06-2008 under Chairmanship of Minister for R&B sanction has been accorded for implementation of Leave Rule, TA Rules and J&K Civil (Service) Medical Attendance Rules as applicable to State Government Employees to the employees of Corporation w. e. f. 01-04-2008 and accordingly Order No. 82 of 2008 dated 10-07-2008 was issued by Managing Director, JKPCCL Ltd. As such the applicant was retired from service on 31-10-2003 and above stated Leave Rule, TA Rule and JK (Civil Service) Medical Rules applicable to State Govt. employees was issued in the year 2008 as such applicant is not entitled for benefit under these rules, which were implemented under No. 82 of 2008 dated 10-07-2008.

16. Ld. Counsel further stated regarding the contention that 10 months Leave Salary benefit has been given to some employees in Srinagar is wrong.

19. Section 33 C (2) of Industrial Disputes Act and section 15, sub-section 3 of payment of Wages Act provides and empower the Labour Court to deal with situation where any workman is entitled to receive from the employer any money or any benefit which is capable or being computed in terms or money or any question arises as to the amount of money due or as to the amount at which such benefit should be computed then question may subject to any rule that may be made under the IDA be decided by such Labour Court as may be specified in this behalf by appropriate Government after giving the opportunity of being heard.

“The character and function of the Labour Court under the Industrial Disputes Act as also the authority under payment of Wages Act are similar in purpose and both are designed to produce the same result particularly as some of the provisions under both the Act prescribe the same thing to be done. The Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and payment of Wages Act, 1936 are therefore ‘Corresponding law’ qua each other particularly as both are part of the same social legislative canopy made by the Parliament for immediate amelioration of workman’s plight resulting from non-payment, or delayed payment or for that matter, short payment of their wages.”

22. As such in view of above stated Act and the law cited, it is safe to hold that this tribunal is competent to adjudicate the dispute raised by the workman.

28. The next leg of the arguments is that JKPCC has adopted the J&K Civil Service Rules, 1979, Civil Service (Medical Attendance and Allowance), 1990 and T. E. Rules vide Order No. 82 dated 10-07-2008. It is imperative to reproduce the Order No. 82/2008 passed by the respondent, JKPCC, which reads as under :ô
